

May 25, 2017

TESTIMONIAL:

During the past number of years, I have personally been involved with student placements. At this present time several of the current operators at our plant have completed their required placements at our plant.

These placements have served several purposes:

- 1. to educate and empower students with technical knowledge on large variety of industrial equipment*
- 2. to provide the opportunity to evaluate the skill set, work ethics, and overall compatibility within the existing workforce*

Daniel Rosenfeld